Brainstorm & Idea Prioritization Template:

Brainstorming provides a free and open environment that encourages everyone within a team to participate in the creative thinking process that leads to problem solving. Prioritizing volume over value, out-of-the-box ideas are welcome and built upon, and all participants are encouraged to collaborate, helping each other develop a rich amount of creative solutions.

Use this template in your own brainstorming sessions so your team can unleash their imagination and start shaping concepts even if you're not sitting in the same room.

Step-1: Team Gathering, Collaboration and Select the Problem Statement

Brainstorm & idea prioritization

Use this template in your own brainstorming sessions so your team can unleash their imagination and start shaping concepts even if you're not sitting in the same room.

🕒 60 minutes or more

👥 3 hours to collaborate

👤 2-8 people recommended

Before you collaborate

A little bit of preparation goes a long way with this template. Here's what you need to do to get going.

🕒 10 minutes

Team gathering

Gather all the right participants for the session and ensure them the environment/room is open and distraction-free.

Key rules of brainstorming

To create a safe and productive space:

Be curious

Encourage wild ideas

Defer judgment

Listen to others

Go for volume

Promote "Yes, and..."

Step-2: Brainstorm, Idea Listing and Grouping

Brainstorm

Write down any ideas that come to mind that address your problem statement.

🕒 15 minutes

💡 TIP

Encourage wild ideas!
No idea is too small or too different at this stage.

Group Ideas

Take turns sharing your ideas while clustering similar or related notes as groups. The team (3–6 members), gets each cluster or separate note. Aim for 6–10 total groups with 4 to 6 sticky notes, (or as able to) per group. Limit to 24–30 total ideas to stay focused.

🕒 20 minutes

💡 TIP

Add a descriptive heading for each group and place related sticky notes under that group.

Step-3: Idea Prioritization

Prioritize

Your team should all be on the same page about what's important moving forward. Place your ideas on this grid to determine which ideas are important and which are feasible.
